- discussing the quiz outcomes and making recommendations about whether the program is suitable for you and identifying additional support where required.

TAT uses “ZOOM” for remote learning delivery. The following are the minimum information technology requirements to enable optimal access to ZOOM:

- A home computer with internet access, a microphone and camera
- Tablet with internet access, a microphone and camera.

Hand-held devices like mobile phones are discouraged and not recommended for the ZOOM sessions.

Support material on How to install ZOOM and Online Delivery can be found at <https://www.advancetraining.com.au> called “Remote Delivery SOP”.

LEARNING MATERIALS

TAT ensures that learning materials used in remote learning are interactive and are presented in a variety of formats, including:

- guided content
- graphics
- video
- audio
- interaction through discussion forums and webinars.

The learning materials are reviewed to ensure that they are: perceivable, operable, understandable and robust.

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

TAT provides a remote learning experience that is engaging and interactive. We will monitor your participation and ensure that you continue to progress through your program.

Collaborative learning opportunities will be provided so that you can interact with peers, through:

- discussion forums
- practical assessment days
- webinars.

Ongoing feedback will be provided through:

- interaction with trainers/assessors in informal discussion forums
- in response to individual queries and in relation to the tasks you complete.

REMOTE LEARNING SERVICE STANDARDS

We will contact you if you have not logged on each day of the program.

You will be deemed to have withdrawn from the program if you:

- have not logged on within 3 days of the program commencement date; and/or
- after making three attempts to contact you and you do not reengage with us.

MODE AND METHOD OF ASSESSMENT

A minimum of two forms of assessment will be used for each subject.

Forms of assessment can include:

- knowledge questions
- projects
- case studies
- demonstration of practical skills.

We will use video technology to demonstrate your attendance in Zoom sessions.

SKILLS FIRST TEACHERS

All trainers and assessors delivering online programs at TAT are experienced in their field of teaching and have undertaken professional development, which includes:

- formal qualifications
- participating in a staff reference groups and industry work/volunteering as trainers and assessors who meet and share ideas for improvement.

Kind Regards
