

National Recognition

One of the most important features of the Australian Quality Training Framework is the national recognition of training organisations and qualifications including Statements of Attainment.

Under national recognition a registered training organisation must accept the credentials issued by another registered training organisation based in any State/Territory of Australia. Technical Advanced Training undertakes to ensure that all Certificates and Statements of Attainment issued by any other registered training organisation are accepted as valid. Your Qualification or Statement of Attainment issued by Technical Advanced Training will be recognised Australia wide under these arrangements.

Certificate III in Security Operations

(Armed Guard & Cash in Transit)
FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Version 1: 20240910

Course Aims & Objectives

The aim of the Certificate III in Security Operations (Armed Guard /Cash-in-Transit) Licensing program is to develop student's understanding in providing operational security services in the context of high-risk asset protection.

Entry Requirements & Prerequisites

It is a legal requirement in the State of Victoria that persons employed to conduct the duties of an Armed Guard and/or Cash in Transit Officer must have a valid security licence, be fully trained to a minimum standard and licensed by the Licensing & Regulatory Division – Victoria Police. In addition to the above you will be required to complete a fingerprint and name check.

Further information about complying with licensing requirements in Victoria can be obtained from Victoria Police, LRD on www.police.vic.gov.au OR 1300 651 645 OR licensingregulation@police.vic.gov.au

TAT has the following entry requirements:

- Students must be 18 years of age or above at the commencement of the course.
- Be enrolled in a principal CRICOS course
- Have a student visa that permits enrolment in a secondary short course (check with the Department of Home Affairs)
- Meet one of the following English language requirements:
 - IELTS score of 5.5 or equivalent achieved in the previous two years
 - Successful completion of Australian Year 12 or equivalent
 - Evidence of completion of at least 2 years of full-time study in English
 - Successful completion of the Pre-Training Review (PTR)
 - Achievement of ACSF level 3 in Oral Communication and ACSF level 2 or above in all other four skill areas

Literacy Language, Numeracy and Digital

If the Pre-Training Review demonstrates that a student does not have language, literacy, numeracy and digital skills at the required ACSF level II, appropriate supports and adjustments will be made to support students to develop the level of language, literacy, numeracy and digital required, or students will be referred to a more appropriate course.

Assessment

Students will be required to be assessed in this program to demonstrate they have achieved the skills and knowledge set out in the competency standards/modules.

Assessments include open book questions, practical shoot and a closed book test. Students must be competent in all units and meet attendance requirements to obtain this qualification.
